

Physical Examination

The YMCA advises that all new members have a physical examination before beginning participation in any active gym and pool class.